The Scroll of Life – His Life Story

Roy Lee Smith was born in Frisco, Texas on July 3, 1933 to Thad Smith and Alberta Conner. At a very young age he moved to Richmond, CA with his family. They joined McGlothen Temple Church of God in Christ in Richmond, CA where he served throughout his childhood. Later he joined St. Beulah church of God in Christ in the city of San Francisco, CA under the pastorate of the late Bishop J.C. Jenkins.

Roy was very active in his young life and had an impact on everyone he encountered. Shortly after graduating from Richmond high School he enlisted into the Army in 1953; then transferred to the Army Reserves on June 29, 1956. Roy was employed at the Veterans Administration hospital as a Surgical Technician in Palo Alto, CA.

In July of 1957, he married Jessie Mae White, who preceded his death, and moved to Palo Alto, CA. They later moved to Sunnyvale, CA where they raised three daughters.

Roy continued to serve at St. Beulah with his family for over 30 years. He served as the YPWW President, President of the Men's Department, Choir President, and the church guitarist. Roy later became the Assistant Pastor. While under the leadership of Bishop Jenkins, God called him to Evangelize where he traveled throughout the United States teaching and preaching the word of God. Many souls were saved and bodies were healed under his ministry.

In 1989, Roy Smith was called to pastor in Sacramento, CA and God gave him the name – Abundant Life Church of God in Christ. He saw a need in the community and birthed the Abundant Life Feeding Program and the Van Ministry. Roy's primary vision was to take Sacramento for Christ and save souls.

Roy was a humble man, quiet and loved people. Even through his sickness, he would always say, "Oh Praise God."

God saw fit to take away the suffering and call his humble servant home on January 2, 2019.

Roy is survived by his three daughters – Esteena Johnson, Donna Gwen and Rolisa Indalecio; one son-in-law Dante Indalecio; three grandchildren – D'Andre Williams, Daisa Indalecio and Te'And Indalecio and three great grandchildren – D'Andre Jr., Savannah and Kendall Williams and a host of cousins, nieces, and nephews.

A FALLEN LIMB

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with yor life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.
